MINER BADLY BURNED.

John McCarthy Arrives in Salt Lake in Bad Condition, From Burning Matches.

John McCarthy, who claims to be a miner from Tonopah, Nev., was picked up about noon yesterday by Officer Brown on the charge of vagrancy. He had a bad burn on his right hand and the right side of his body which he claimed had been caused by the igniting of some matches in his vest pocket at Terrace station.

McCarthy asserted that he had been given a pass to Salt Lake by the Weber county authorities. Among his paper was a card containing the house number of Senator Kearns. He said he had been told to see the Senator to gain admission to St. Mark's hospital.
